

AROUND THE WORLD WITH STOCKade

Every year Greg Tapscott leaves home in South Australia to spend months rebuilding fencelines after devastating bush fires.

Landscape artist Ross Lewis captures the art of fencing and a classic New Zealand fencing vista at the New Zealand National Fieldays.

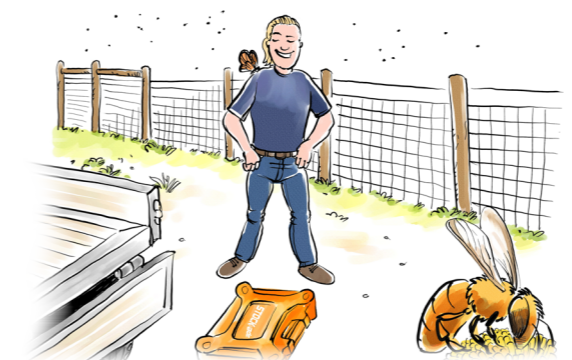

Kyle Stender from Western New York competing at the 'Shoot Out' - premier fencing competition during the Fall Fence Forum in Indiana.

The Slaybaugh family from Mt Ridge Farm, Pennsylvania USA are installing high density trellis systems for next generation robotic apple harvesting.

A warm welcome to the Series II ST400i - the same speed, power and reliability, with a new filter and belt hook design.

Jessica Woodcock building fence in Virginia USA to save the bees with the USDA conservation reserve pollinator initiative.

Alan Fenwick from South West Victoria, Australia, jumping over swampy land and rocky terrain stapling up wire anywhere he can with the cordless ST400i.

Great to see the ST400i in action at the Silver Spades Competition with Murray Graham at the New Zealand National Fieldays.

Nick Terry battling the salt and the sea fog in Orokonui Valley, Otago, New Zealand.

Ryan Sloop from North Carolina USA started a trend "protecting the essentials" in his Stoney Creek shorts from New Zealand.

Lisa Jenereaux from Spurr Bros Farms is flying down the rows in Annapolis Valley, Nova Scotia, Canada.

STOCKade
POWERED FENCE STAPLING